

Gulzor Muhabbat Mamadkarim
Justice of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Tajikistan

Was born in 1960. Ms. Gulzorova graduated from the law faculty of Tajik State University in 1983.

From 1983 till 1997 she was working as the head of archive and special library, counselor on systematization and adoption of the laws and legal drafts, senior advisor of the human resource department and special works at the Ministry of justice of the Republic of Tajikistan, specialist of 1st category of the department of the special works at the Administration of the Council of Ministers of the Republic of Tajikistan, head of the department of the Administration of the President of the Republic of Tajikistan, senior specialist of the human resource and registration department at the Administration of the Council of Ministers of the Republic of Tajikistan, senior specialist and head of the sector in the legal department at the Administration of the President of the Republic of Tajikistan.

From 2008 Ms. Gulzorova worked at the deputy head of the Civil Servants department under the President of the Republic of Tajikistan. In May 2009 she was elected as the justice of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Tajikistan.

Justice of the 1st qualification rank.