

Ms. Liviana Zorzi has joined us a Programme Analyst in the Effective Governance and Peacebuilding Team. She will support mainly the implementation of the projects “Promoting a Fair Business Environment in ASEAN” and “Judicial Integrity Champions in APEC”. She joined UNDP Bangkok Regional Hub in 2014, initially as an international UNV, and then as a consultant.

Passionate about themes of social justice, equality, citizen engagement, she provides programme support on transparency, accountability, anti-corruption, open government, private sector partnership and gender.

Prior to joining UNDP, she has been working for 3 years in the private sector as Executive Assistant and Project Manager at Pordenone Exhibition Centre. She worked for 2 years also in the field of public health and social determinants of health with WHO in Uzbekistan and EuroHealthNet, a Brussels-based NGO conducting research for the European Commission.

Before joining international organizations, Liviana worked with several Italian CSOs in the field of sustainable development, solidarity economy, peace promotion (ACLI – Christian Italian Workers Association-, IPSIA – ACLI Peace Innovation Development Institute, Officina della Decrescita Felice).

She holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Communication Sciences and a Master in Public, Social and Political Communication from the University of Bologna (Italy).